WELCOME AND ANNOUNCEMENTS

CALL TO WORSHIP

(Adapted from Psalm 99)

The Lord is king; let the peoples tremble!

The Lord sits enthroned upon the cherubim; let the earth quake!

The Lord is great in Zion; the Lord is exalted over all the peoples.

Let them praise your great and awesome name. Holy is the Lord!

Mighty King, lover of justice, you have established equity; you have executed justice and righteousness in Jacob.

Extol the Lord our God; worship at the Lord's footstool. Holy is the Lord!

MIREN QUE BUENO

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Mighty and merciful God, you have claimed us as your people and called us to serve and follow Jesus Christ. We confess that we have not lived up to our calling. We have been timid and frightened disciples, forgetful of your powerful presence and the strength of your Spirit among us. Forgive us and empower us by your Holy Spirit to go and serve your Son Jesus Christ in whose name we pray. Amen. (Time of silent confession).

DECLARATION OF PARDON

Friends, believe the good news of the gospel.

In Jesus Christ we are forgiven. Thanks be to God.

CALL TO FAITHFULNESS

(John 1: 1)

In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. He was in the beginning with God. All things came into being through him, and without him not one thing came into being. What has come into being in him was life, and the life was the light of all people. The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness did not overcome it.

ANTHEM

Dazzling Presence on the Mountain
 Chancel Choir with Daeun Kim, Organ
 + The Congregation is invited to sing vs. 4 (in bold)

Karen E Black

Dazzling presence on the mountain —
 Human eye had never seen
 Such a wonder, such resplendence,
 Heav'n and earth in cloud convene.
 "This is my Son, my beloved,"
 Thund'rous voice from cloud exclaimed.
 "Word made flesh to heal creation,"
 To disciples God proclaimed.

From the heights of New Creation,
 Christ beholds his world, redeemed;
 As with Peter and companions,
 Bring us now to sights unseen.
 Justice, mercy, and compassion:
 These the booths he bids us build,
 That the earth he loves may flourish
 As each life with grace is filled.

From this mount of mystic splendor
 To the cross Christ presses on;
 Here no Moses, nor Elijah,
 Only thieves Christ's wings adorn.
 "Lord have mercy, Christ have mercy,"
 Was one's penitential sigh.
 With transfiguring assurance,
 Christ rejoins his fervent cry.

+ Let our praise ring from each mountain,
 Into deepest valleys pour,
 Where with lives of grateful service
 We adore Christ evermore.
 To the Son, God's own beloved,
 And the Spirit endlessly,
 May the church's praise be lifted
 To the Blessed Trinity.

THE SACRAMENT OF HOLY COMMUNION

Invitation to the Lord's Table

The Great Prayer of Thanksgiving

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them up to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Therefore, we praise you...who forever sing to the glory of your name.

For great is the mystery of faith:

Memorial Acclamation

The Lord's Prayer (unison)

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory, forever. Amen.

Breaking of the Bread and Lifting of the Cup

When communion is served in the pews: You are invited to pick up a piece of bread and a cup of red grape juice or white wine. As you pass the bread, you are invited to say, "the bread of heaven" or "the body of Christ broken for you." As you pass the juice/wine, you are invited to say, "the blood of Christ shed for you" or "the cup of salvation." As you receive the bread and the cup, responses include "Thanks be to God" or "Amen." As you sit, you may think of those who have come to the Lord's Table with you, those who have come before you, those who will come after you; or you may reflect on God's gifts for you. All bread is gluten free.

This text is a 21st-century metrical paraphrase of the Apostles' Creed (in the manner of Calvin's Strasbourg liturgy). Its connections with Reformed tradition are further strengthened by being set to the tune created for Psalm 42 in the 1551 Genevan Psalter (see also no. 87).

The first two stanzas of this text deal with events in the past (the feeding of the multitude and the Last Supper) and the final two with events in the present. The recurring last four lines of each stanza serve as an affirmation of Christ's continuing presence at all times.

2 Corinthians 3: 12– 4:4

¹²Since, then, we have such a hope, we act with great boldness, ¹³not like Moses, who put a veil over his face to keep the people of Israel from gazing at the end of the glory that was being set aside. ¹⁴But their minds were hardened. Indeed, to this very day, when they hear the reading of the old covenant, that same veil is still there, since only in Christ is it set aside. ¹⁵Indeed, to this very day whenever Moses is read, a veil lies over their minds; ¹⁶but when one turns to the Lord, the veil is removed. ¹⁷Now the Lord is the Spirit, and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is freedom. ¹⁸And all of us, with unveiled faces, seeing the glory of the Lord as though reflected in a mirror, are being transformed into the same image from one degree of glory to another; for this comes from the Lord, the Spirit.

⁴Therefore, since it is by God's mercy that we are engaged in this ministry, we do not lose heart. ²We have renounced the shameful things that one hides; we refuse to practice cunning or to falsify God's word; but by the open statement of the truth we commend ourselves to the conscience of everyone in the sight of God

Luke 9: 37-43

On the next day, when they had come down from the mountain, a great crowd met him. ³⁸Just then a man from the crowd shouted, "Teacher, I beg you to look at my son; he is my only child. ³⁹Suddenly a spirit seizes him, and all at once he shrieks. It convulses him until he foams at the mouth; it mauls him and will scarcely leave him. ⁴⁰I begged your disciples to cast it out, but they could not." ⁴¹Jesus answered, "You faithless and perverse generation, how much longer must I be with you and bear with you? Bring your son here." ⁴²While he was coming, the demon dashed him to the ground in convulsions. But Jesus rebuked the unclean spirit, healed the boy, and gave him back to his father.

⁴³And all were astounded at the greatness of God.
