WELCOME AND ANNOUNCEMENTS

CALL TO WORSHIP

(Adapted from Psalm 138)

Elijah traveled forty days in the wilderness to hear the voice of God in the silence.

Lead us, O Lord, from death to life.

Jonah cried out to the people of Nineveh: Repent, or in forty days you will perish.

Lead us, O Lord, from death to life.

Jesus fasted and prayed for forty days and was tested by the devil.

Lead us, O Lord, from death to life.

For forty days we journey through Lent; learning to believe and confess.

Lead us, O Lord, from death to life.

Abram and Sarai heard God's promise and looked to the future with hope.

Lead us, O Lord, from death to life.

We hear the call to come, eat, and seek the Lord.

Lead us, O Lord, from death to life.

ST. FLAVIAN

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Eternal God, we know the good you desire for us and the covenant relationship into which you call us. Yet too often we seek to satisfy our own desires. In Jesus Christ we know the essence of steadfast love and the promise of abundant life. Yet we find ourselves bound by our limited sense of grace, compassion, and imagination. By the power of the Holy Spirit, you are present as our guide and comfort, but we turn we from your spiritual direction and choose our own paths. In your mercy, forgive us, and renew within us such a sense of your grace that we may live to serve and honor you, through our Lord Jesus Christ, in whose name we pray. Amen (Time of silent confession).

DECLARATION OF PARDON

Friends, believe the good news of the gospel.

In Jesus Christ we are forgiven. Thanks be to God.

The Singing of the Law (Tune: Toulon)

*Your law enables us to learn each day in order that your will we may obey
O Lord, confirm us in this knowledge true. Urged by your Spirit may we best serve you.*

*No other gods shall ever go before, nor idols shall we for ourselves secure.
We shall not wrongly use your name in vain, and holy shall we keep the sabbath day.*

*To father and to mother honor be. We shall not kill nor break fidelity.
We shall not steal. No lying witness bear, nor covet that which is our neighbors' share.*

*You shall we love, Lord, with all our heart, and too with all our soul, which you impart,
And all our strength and mind to you we give. Love neighbors as ourselves that we may live.*

*SUNG RESPONSE (Hymn 576)

*HYMN 738

O Master, Let Me Walk with Thee

MARYTON

*THE AFFIRMATION OF FAITH

(A Brief Statement of Faith)

We trust in Jesus Christ, fully human, fully God. Jesus proclaimed the reign of God: preaching good news to the poor and release to the captives, teaching by word and deed and blessing the children, healing the sick and binding up the brokenhearted, eating with outcasts, forgiving sinners, and calling all to repent and believe the gospel. Unjustly condemned for blasphemy and sedition, Jesus was crucified, suffering the depths of human pain and giving his life for the sins of the world. God raised this Jesus from the dead, vindicating his sinless life, breaking the power of sin and evil, delivering us from death to life eternal. Amen.

Like many of this author's hymns, this text was written primarily for children but works equally well in reminding adults how Lent connects us with Christ's temptation in the wilderness and prepares us for Easter. The 16th-century English psalm tune provides sturdy support.

 guide them in the home - ward way.
 trust that tri - umphs o - ver wrong.
 thee, O Mas - ter, let me live.

In honestly admitting the limits of human ability, this prayerful hymn does not seek a sense of God's presence for self-comfort but for strength and companionship in pursuing the tasks that God sets before us. The author specifically chose this tune to accompany his words.

Our Father, Which Art in Heaven 464

1 Our Fa - ther, which art in heav - en:
 2 On earth as it is in heav - en:
 3 And for - give us all our debts:

Thy king - dom come; thy will be done:
 Give us this day our dai - ly bread:
 As we for - give our debt - ors:
 But de - liv - er us from e - vil:
 For - ev - er and ev - er, a - men:

This lively call-and-response setting of the Lord's Prayer, based on the King James Version, uses the opening blessing as the congregation's refrain. This repetition is more than a convenience; it is a reminder of our abiding hope that all people will come to honor God's name.

Sanctuary

Lord, pre - pare me to be a sanc-tu - ar - y, pure and

 I'll be a liv - ing sanc-tu - ar - y for you.

The lines given here convey the central message of the longer song for which they form the refrain. The principal Scripture reference is 1 Corinthians 3:16–17, Paul's reminder to the Christians at Corinth that "[they] are God's temple and that God's Spirit dwells in [them]."

O God, You Are My God 743

Step by Step

O God, you are my God, and I will ev-er praise
 you. O God, you are my God, and I will ev-er praise you. I will seek you in the morn - ing, and I will learn to walk in your ways. And step by step you'll lead me, and I will fol - low you all of my days.

Though this refrain from a longer song is not a paraphrase of any particular psalm, the language in the first six lines has definite scriptural overtones (such as Psalms 31:14, 5:3; Deuteronomy 26:17). The final two lines sound more spontaneous and lead to a confident conclusion.

Luke 13: 1-9

At that very time there were some present who told him about the Galileans whose blood Pilate had mingled with their sacrifices. <sup>2</sup>He asked them, "Do you think that because these Galileans suffered in this way they were worse sinners than all other Galileans? <sup>3</sup>No, I tell you; but unless you repent, you will all perish as they did. <sup>4</sup>Or those eighteen who were killed when the tower of Siloam fell on them—do you think that they were worse offenders than all the others living in Jerusalem? <sup>5</sup>No, I tell you; but unless you repent, you will all perish just as they did."

<sup>6</sup>Then he told this parable: "A man had a fig tree planted in his vineyard; and he came looking for fruit on it and found none. <sup>7</sup>So he said to the gardener, 'See here! For three years I have come looking for fruit on this fig tree, and still I find none. Cut it down! Why should it be wasting the soil?' <sup>8</sup>He replied, 'Sir, let it alone for one more year, until I dig around it and put manure on it. <sup>9</sup>If it bears fruit next year, well and good; but if not, you can cut it down.'"

Isaiah 55: 1-9

Ho, everyone who thirsts, come to the waters; and you that have no money, come, buy and eat! Come, buy wine and milk without money and without price. <sup>2</sup>Why do you spend your money for that which is not bread, and your labor for that which does not satisfy? Listen carefully to me, and eat what is good, and delight yourselves in rich food. <sup>3</sup>Incline your ear, and come to me; listen, so that you may live. I will make with you an everlasting covenant, my steadfast, sure love for David. <sup>4</sup>See, I made him a witness to the peoples, a leader and commander for the peoples. <sup>5</sup>See, you shall call nations that you do not know, and nations that do not know you shall run to you, because of the Lord your God, the Holy One of Israel, for he has glorified you.

<sup>6</sup>Seek the Lord while he may be found, call upon him while he is near; <sup>7</sup>let the wicked forsake their way, and the unrighteous their thoughts; let them return to the Lord, that he may have mercy on them, and to our God, for he will abundantly pardon. <sup>8</sup>For my thoughts are not your thoughts, nor are your ways my ways, says the Lord. <sup>9</sup>For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are my ways higher than your ways and my thoughts than your thoughts.

Acrylic Yarn and Crochet Hooks
Needed for Nursing Research Project

Shawn Flader, a physical therapist with Texas Health Presbyterian Hospital in Denton, is assisting with a nursing research project that is investigating whether knitting/crocheting groups can help facilitate a nurse's sense of belonging and self-compassion. The project will be recruiting nurses to participate in weekly crochet groups over a 12-week period. The nurses will be taught to crochet squares. These squares will later be sewn into blankets and each group will then decide where to donate the blankets, perhaps to NICU babies or to a homeless shelter. They are currently looking for donations of acrylic yarn and crochet hooks for use in the project. If you have an extra skein of acrylic yarn lying around (or a partially used skein), the Mission Committee will be collecting the yarn and hooks in a basket in the Narthex. The collected yarn and hooks will be collected by Shawn in the next few weeks. Questions – please contact Kirsten Brown at brownke@lisd.net.
