WELCOME AND ANNOUNCEMENTS

CALL TO WORSHIP

(Adapted from Acts 10)

Hear the good news! The Lord is alive!

Christ is risen. Alleluia!

The risen Lord destroys death, conquers sin, and wipes away all shame.

Christ is risen. Alleluia!

We are drenched in radiating mystery:

Christ is risen. Alleluia!

OPENING PRAYER

Thine Is the Glory

JUDAS MACCABEUS

AFFIRMATION OF GOD'S LOVE

We lift our voices and proclaim your saving grace.

We marvel at the power of your love, O God.

We proclaim the resurrection and remember the ways you have given us new life (silent affirmation).....we marvel at how again and again you have given us hope in the depths of our despair and joined us in our joys (silent affirmation)....we give thanks for the hope you have given us in the face of our own mortality and the death of loved ones (silent affirmation)....we pray that your transforming power be at work in our lives freeing us from that which holds us back and shaping us into the new creations you call us to be (silent prayer for transformation)....Christ is risen.

He is risen, indeed. Alleluia. Amen.

*SUNG RESPONSE

Hymn 240, (Refrain)

Alleluia, alleluia! Give thanks to the risen Lord. Alleluia, alleluia! Give praise to his name.

SACRAMENT OF BAPTISM (10:45am)

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE AND LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory, forever. Amen.

*DOXOLOGY

Hymn 608, Praise God, from Whom All Blessings Flow

Praise God, from whom all blessings flow; praise Christ, all people here below; praise Holy Spirit evermore; praise Triune God, whom we adore.

INVITATION TO DISCIPLESHIP

During Easter we celebrate and affirm that "Christ is risen indeed!"

This is good news because Christ's resurrection is not only for him, it is for us as well.

Through Christ's resurrection, God offers us a new life in which sin and death no longer hold power over us.

Claiming this new life, we are called to follow the risen Christ into the world, sharing the good news of resurrection for all people.

With the Spirit's help, let us join together in this life of discipleship.

One Great Hour of Sharing Collected Today

The One Great Hour of Sharing Offering will be collected today. This is a wonderful way to give generously in a world of disaster, hunger, and oppression when millions of people lack access to sustainable food sources, clean water, sanitation, education, and opportunity. The three programs supported by One Great Hour of Sharing - Presbyterian Disaster Assistance, the Presbyterian Hunger Program, and Self-Development of People - all work in different ways to serve individuals and communities in need. From initial disaster response to ongoing community development, their work fits together to provide people with safety, sustenance, and hope. Questions? Contact the Mission Committee.

THE SACRAMENT OF BAPTISM FOR
CHARLOTTE CATHERINE FITE
PARENTS CHRISTINA AND JONATHON FITE
APRIL 20, 2025
ST ANDREW PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH
DENTON, TEXAS

Words of Preparation

Hear the words of our Lord Jesus Christ: All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to obey everything that I have commanded you. And remember, I am with you always, to the end of the age.

In baptism, we are graced with a new beginning. Baptism is a sign and seal of God's covenant of grace still with us today. In baptism we are engrafted into the family of God. It is a relationship that endures for a lifetime and beyond. In baptism we are marked as Christ's own; it is a visible sign of God's continuing faithfulness and proclamation of our intention to dwell in covenant with God and one another. Let us remember with joy our own baptism as we celebrate this sacrament.

Presentation of Charlotte Catherine Fite

Ruling Elder Stacy Hays: On behalf of this congregation and its Session, I present Charlotte Catherine Fite to receive the Sacrament of Baptism.

Questions for the Parents

Christina and Jonathon, do you trust in Jesus Christ as your Lord and Savior?

Putting your whole trust in Jesus Christ, do you desire that Charlotte Catherine be baptized?

Relying on God's grace, do you promise to live the Christian faith and to teach that faith to Charlotte Catherine?

Trusting in the gracious mercy of God, do you turn away from the ways of sin and renounce evil in the world?

Questions for the Congregation

In receiving this child of God, do we as members of the body of Christ promise to guide Charlotte Catherine that one day she may confess Jesus Christ as her Lord and Savior?

Do we promise to nurture her with love and prayer and encourage her to know and follow Christ and be a faithful member of Christ's church?

Profession of Faith (Apostles' Creed)

I believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead and buried; he descended into hell; the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead. I believe in the Holy Ghost; the holy catholic church; the communion of saints; the forgiveness of sins; the resurrection of the body; and the life everlasting. Amen.

Prayer Over the Water of Baptism

Baptism

Who stands with this child?

Charlotte Catherine, child of the covenant, I baptize you in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit....

Welcome

Ruling Elder Stacy Hays: We have just received Charlotte Catherine into the one holy catholic and apostolic church through baptism. God has reaffirmed the covenant made to Abraham and made to us in the baptism of Charlotte Catherine.

With joy and thanksgiving we welcome Charlotte Catherine into Christ's church, and we reaffirm our own baptismal vows, committing ourselves to the service of God.

(Ministers introduce Charlotte Catherine to the congregation).

In 1968 Easter fell ten days after the assassination of Martin Luther King Jr., and this text was written to express an Easter hope while mindful of that terrible event. Buoyed by a triple-arched tune, it affirms the presence of a wounded, risen Christ with all who suffer.

This majestic hymn celebrates the paradox that for Christians a means of painful death has been transformed into a symbol of renewed life; a sign of defeat has become an emblem of victory. With the cross traced on our foreheads at Baptism we are marked as Christ's own forever.

CRUCIFER

10.10 with refrain

Isaiah 63: 17-25

¹⁷For I am about to create new heavens and a new earth; the former things shall not be remembered or come to mind. ¹⁸But be glad and rejoice forever in what I am creating; for I am about to create Jerusalem as a joy, and its people as a delight. ¹⁹I will rejoice in Jerusalem, and delight in my people; no more shall the sound of weeping be heard in it, or the cry of distress. ²⁰No more shall there be in it an infant that lives but a few days, or an old person who does not live out a lifetime; for one who dies at a hundred years will be considered a youth, and one who falls short of a hundred will be considered accursed. ²¹They shall build houses and inhabit them; they shall plant vineyards and eat their fruit. ²²They shall not build and another inhabit; they shall not plant and another eat; for like the days of a tree shall the days of my people be, and my chosen shall long enjoy the work of their hands. ²³They shall not labor in vain, or bear children for calamity; for they shall be offspring blessed by the Lord— and their descendants as well. ²⁴Before they call I will answer, while they are yet speaking I will hear. ²⁵The wolf and the lamb shall feed together, the lion shall eat straw like the ox; but the serpent—its food shall be dust! They shall not hurt or destroy on all my holy mountain, says the Lord.

John 20: 1-18

Early on the first day of the week, while it was still dark, Mary Magdalene came to the tomb and saw that the stone had been removed from the tomb. ²So she ran and went to Simon Peter and the other disciple, the one whom Jesus loved, and said to them, “They have taken the Lord out of the tomb, and we do not know where they have laid him.” ³Then Peter and the other disciple set out and went toward the tomb. ⁴The two were running together, but the other disciple outran Peter and reached the tomb first. ⁵He bent down to look in and saw the linen wrappings lying there, but he did not go in. ⁶Then Simon Peter came, following him, and went into the tomb. He saw the linen wrappings lying there, ⁷and the cloth that had been on Jesus’ head, not lying with the linen wrappings but rolled up in a place by itself. ⁸Then the other disciple, who reached the tomb first, also went in, and he saw and believed; ⁹for as yet they did not understand the scripture, that he must rise from the dead. ¹⁰Then the disciples returned to their homes.

¹¹But Mary stood weeping outside the tomb. As she wept, she bent over to look into the tomb; ¹²and she saw two angels in white, sitting where the body of Jesus had been lying, one at the head and the other at the feet. ¹³They said to her, “Woman, why are you weeping?” She said to them, “They have taken away my Lord, and I do not know where they have laid him.” ¹⁴When she had said this, she turned around and saw Jesus standing there, but she did not know that it was Jesus. ¹⁵Jesus said to her, “Woman, why are you weeping? Whom are you looking for?” Supposing him to be the gardener, she said to him, “Sir, if you have carried him away, tell me where you have laid him, and I will take him away.” ¹⁶Jesus said to her, “Mary!” She turned and said to him in Hebrew, “Rabbouni!” (which means Teacher). ¹⁷Jesus said to her, “Do not hold on to me, because I have not yet ascended to the Father. But go to my brothers and say to them, ‘I am ascending to my Father and your Father, to my God and your God.’” ¹⁸Mary Magdalene went and announced to the disciples, “I have seen the Lord”; and she told them that he had said these things to her.
